Invisible Children:

The History

The war in northern Uganda has been called the most neglected humanitarian emergency in the world today. For the past 23 years, the Lord’s Resistance Army (LRA) and the Government of Uganda (GoU) have been waging a war that has left nearly two million innocent civilians caught in the middle. The GoU’s attempt to protect its citizens from this rebel militia has largely failed, resulting in an entire generation of youth that has never known peace.

The LRA rebel movement can be traced back to the 1980’s when a woman named Alice Lakwena believed the Holy Spirit spoke to her and ordered her to overthrow the Ugandan government for being unjust. When Lakwena was exiled, Joseph Kony took control and transformed Lakwena’s rebel army into abducting children and indoctrinating them into their ranks.

The attacks caused the Ugandan government to forcibly evicted thousands from their homes, relocating them into overcrowded camps in hopes of providing protection. But over a decade later, roughly one million individuals still live in these camps. Invisible Children remains committed to seeking sustainable solutions to foster an environment that encourages peace. We are supporting and equipping a generation ravaged by war so that they can finally know peace.
